

1	John took me through the new procedures	a	John made me breakfast on the moon	a	Verb and Particle can be separated b	John fell off a horse	b	Verb and Particle cannot be separated c	John explained the new procedures to me	c	Does not take an object

2	Mark wriggled out of giving the presentation again!!!	a	Mark had a bacon and egg sandwich.	a	Verb and Particle can be separated b	Mark wrote a romantic letter.	b	Verb and Particle cannot be separated c	Mark was successfully able to avoid doing the presentation.	c	Does not take an object

3	After leaving university, Maria and Francesca slowly drifted apart.	a	Maria and Francesca climbed Mount Everest	a	Verb and Particle can be separated b	Maria and Francesca learned how to make Thai curry	b	Verb and Particle cannot be separated c	Maria and Francesca gradually saw each other less often and their friendship eventually ended	c	Does not take an object

4	Silvia stood in for Mark at the meeting	a	Silvia stole John's favourite Ice skates	a	Verb and Particle can be separated b	Silvia dropped a piano on John's goldfish	b	Verb and Particle cannot be separated c	Silvia substituted Mark in a meeting when he was not present.	c	Does not take an object

5	Pete chickened out of stealing some eggs from the shops.	a	Pete's bicycle started speaking to him	a	Verb and Particle can be separated b	Pete was curious about an object in his bag	b	Verb and Particle cannot be separated c	Pete decided not to steal the eggs because he was too afraid to do it	c	Does not take an object