

Colours & Idioms

IN ENGLISH

Here are some idioms with the word "blue" in them:

1. "Feeling blue": This idiom refers to a state of sadness or melancholy. When you're feeling down or experiencing a bout of the blues, this expression accurately captures those emotions.
2. "Once in a blue moon": This idiom is used to describe something that happens very rarely or infrequently. Just as the occurrence of a blue moon (the second full moon within a calendar month) is uncommon, so is something that happens "once in a blue moon."
3. "Out of the blue": When something happens unexpectedly or without any warning, it is said to come "out of the blue." It signifies a surprise that catches you off guard.
4. "True blue": This idiom describes someone who is loyal, trustworthy, and genuinely dependable. A "true blue" individual is steadfast and faithful in their commitments.
5. "Sing the blues": If you're singing the blues, it means you're expressing feelings of sadness, disappointment, or heartache, often through music. This phrase is commonly associated with the genre of blues music, known for its expression of sorrowful emotions.
6. "Between the devil and the deep blue sea": This idiom represents a difficult or impossible choice between two equally unfavorable options. It conveys a feeling of being trapped with no easy way out.
7. "Blue-collar": This term is used to describe manual laborers or people who work in industries requiring physical skills. It typically refers to jobs that involve manual or non-office work, such as construction, manufacturing, or maintenance.
8. "Into the blue": This idiom refers to venturing into the unknown or taking a leap of faith. It represents stepping into a situation or journey without a clear outcome or certainty.

Here are some idioms with the word "red" in them:

1. "Caught red-handed": This idiom is used when someone is caught in the act of doing something wrong or illegal. It implies being caught with clear evidence or being caught in the midst of a wrongdoing.
2. "Red-letter day": This idiom refers to a day of special significance or importance. It suggests a day marked on the calendar in red to stand out from ordinary days.
3. "Red tape": When we talk about red tape, we are referring to excessive bureaucracy or excessive formalities that impede progress or delay processes. It signifies unnecessary paperwork or procedures that can be frustrating and time-consuming.
4. "In the red": If someone or something is "in the red," it means they are in debt or facing financial losses. It is often used to describe a business or individual's negative financial situation.
5. "Red-eye flight": This idiom refers to an overnight flight that travels during the late evening or early morning hours. It is called a "red-eye" because of the tired, bloodshot eyes passengers often have after a sleepless night.
6. "Paint the town red": This idiom means to go out and have a lively and exciting time, often involving partying, celebrations, and indulgence. It suggests having a memorable and enjoyable night on the town.
7. "Red herring": A red herring is something that distracts attention from the main issue or topic at hand. It refers to a misleading clue or information that leads people off track or diverts their focus.
8. "See red": When someone "sees red," it means they become extremely angry or furious. It conveys a sudden surge of intense anger or frustration.

Here are some idioms with the word "black" in them:

1. "Black and white": This idiom refers to something that is clear, definite, or straightforward. It suggests a situation or issue that has no gray areas or ambiguity.
2. "Black sheep": When someone is considered the "black sheep" of the family or group, it means they are seen as different or disreputable compared to the rest. It implies being the odd one out or having a questionable reputation.
3. "Black market": This idiom describes illegal or unauthorized trading or commerce. It refers to the buying and selling of goods or services outside of official channels or without adhering to legal regulations.
4. "Blackout": If there is a blackout, it means there is a sudden loss of electricity, resulting in a complete absence of light. Figuratively, it can also refer to a period of amnesia or memory loss.
5. "Black and blue": When someone is black and blue, it means they have bruised or discolored skin due to physical injury or trauma. It signifies visible signs of being hurt or beaten.
6. "Pitch-black": This idiom describes a situation or place that is completely dark or devoid of any light. It signifies absolute darkness or a lack of illumination.
7. "Black gold": This term is often used to refer to oil, emphasizing its value and economic significance. It reflects the idea that oil is a highly valuable and sought-after resource.
8. "Black-hearted": If someone is described as black-hearted, it means they are wicked, evil, or lacking in compassion. It suggests a person who has malicious intentions or a cruel nature.

mpec

ENGAGE, NOT TEACH

info@mpec.it