

Lazy Phrasal Verbs

Here are 10 phrasal verbs related to the themes of being lazy, doing nothing, and procrastinating, complete with their meanings, an accompanying emoji, and a sample sentence for each

- 1. Veg Out 🍴: Relax and do nothing in particular.
  - Sample: "After a long week of work, I just want to veg out in front of the TV this weekend."
- 2. Laze Around 😊: Spend time being lazy and inactive.
  - Sample: "We spent the whole Sunday lazing around in the garden, enjoying the sun."
- 3. Put Off 🕒: Delay or postpone something.
  - Sample: "I keep putting off cleaning my garage; I'll probably do it next month."
- 4. Slack Off 🛑: Avoid work or be less productive.
  - Sample: "We can't afford to slack off this week; there's too much work to be done."
- 5. Lie In 🛏️: Stay in bed longer than usual.
  - Sample: "On my day off, I love having a lie-in and not waking up to an alarm."
- 6. Kick Back 🧘: Relax, especially by lying down or reclining.
  - Sample: "It's nice to kick back with a good book after a hectic day."
- 7. Hang Out 🧑🏻: Spend time relaxing or doing nothing in particular.
  - Sample: "We just hung out at the cafe, chatting and watching the world go by."
- 8. Doss Down 🛌: (British English) Sleep at someone's house, often on the sofa or in an improvised setting.
  - Sample: "After the party, everyone dossed down in the living room."
- 9. Zone Out 🙄: Stop paying attention and not think about anything specific.
  - Sample: "I totally zoned out during that boring lecture."
- 10. Chill Out ❄️: Relax and take things easy.
  - Sample: "You've been working too hard; you need to chill out for a bit."